

JUST the Reserves Wine Seminar

Summer 2011

On select Saturdays this summer, join our Certified Sommelier, Jim Gerakaris, for an educational guided tasting of JUSTIN reserve wines deep inside our caves in our ISOSCELES Library. In each session, Jim will “deconstruct” either SAVANT, JUSTIFICATION, or ISOSCELES to illustrate how the varietals work together to form a blend and how the wine changes in the bottle over time.

Throughout the tasting, Jim will guide participants through the deductive style of tasting. This method is used by sommeliers and wine professionals to evaluate aroma, flavor, and structural components typical to each grape variety and the different types of wines made from them. With this basic instruction, you will begin to build a wine vocabulary, further develop your palate, and better understand wine reviews and tasting notes.

Seminar includes:

- Component Tasting:
  - Taste barrel samples of the varietal components that make up the blend
  - Learn how to identify varietal characteristics and better understand how they combine to form the final blend
- Current Vintage Tasting:
  - Taste the current release of the featured wine
  - Learn about how each component interacts to form the flavor profile of the finished product
- Library Vintage Tasting:
  - Taste two library vintages of the featured wine
  - Learn how the wine changes over time with proper cellaring
