Dear JUSTIN Wine Society Members,

I'm thrilled to announce that I will be setting sail aboard Silversea again in 2010! In late July I shall sail from Stockholm, Sweden to Copenhagen, Denmark with a day in beautiful Helsinki, Finland and another in ancient Tallinn, Estonia. I'm incredibly excited that the voyage also allows for three days of inspiration and exploration in St. Petersburg, Russia. Photographs have already captured my imagination and I can't wait to combine the opulence of this great port city with the onboard luxury that awaits us aboard Silversea's Silver Whisper. I had a great time with JUSTIN Wine Society Members aboard the Whisper's sister ship the Shadow in August of 2009 and I know that this cruise will be phenomenal. While at sea we will enjoy private receptions and wine maker dinners, pair wines with cuisines, compare vertical tastings, and learn a bit more about wine through some engaging lectures as we make our way through the Baltic Sea. I also understand that right now Silversea is able to offer JUSTIN Wine Society members roundtrip complimentary economy airfare and a savings of 60% on this incredible voyage, so these all-inclusive fares start at just $4,078 per person. With these great prices and these great ports, I hope you'll be able to join me on this fascinating cultural journey.
